Why does Excelsior Library need Friends?

The Friends are dedicated to volunteering, fundraising, and promotion to support the Excelsior Library. As a non-profit, 501(c)3 organization, the Friends are legally a distinct entity and not a part of the Library. The Friends of Excelsior Library partner with the Hennepin County Library to raise awareness of library services and resources.

What are the benefits of being a Friend?

When you join the Friends, you get

- One FREE Bestseller Express rental
- FREE tickets to the Science Museum of Minnesota's Omnitheater, St. Paul (for volunteering time at the Excelsior Library)
- Priority ticketing for the Pen Pals author lecture series
- Special events and annual recognition activity

What do the Friends do?

Here are some of the items the Friends have provided for the Excelsior Library:

- Children's Summer Reading Materials
- Summer Program Gift Certificates
- Magnets with library hours
- Booktrucks
- Display panels
- Garden flowers and plants
- Files, bags easels and bookends

Here are some of the programs the Friends have funded:

- Paws to Read
- Hot Reads
- Books Galore
- One Book, One Community
- Author Talks
- Guys Read & Girls Only Book Clubs
- Schiffelly Puppets
- Bill the Juggler

Who can be a Friend?

Anyone can be a Friend of the Excelsior Library! Memberships are good for one calendar year. Join in October and get three months free!

How can you get more involved?

The Board of the Friends of Excelsior Library meets on the second Tuesday of the month from 5:30 to 6:30 PM at the library. The meetings are open to all. New Board members are elected at the Annual Meeting in October every year.
