Why join the Friends?

Friends of the Library strengthen community ties by sharing a passion for books and learning, taking on fundraising efforts, assisting with programs and events, and sponsoring special programs for children, teens, adults and seniors.

About the Friends of the Hennepin County Library

Friends are dedicated to raising awareness of library services and resources, volunteering, fundraising and supporting the local library and library system through a variety of activities and promotion. There are 26 Friends groups, with membership open to all. Each is a separate nonprofit organization comprised of local residents, local business and community organizations who volunteer time and provide financial support for their local library. Visit www.hclib.org/friends for more information.
