Kashimana Ahua Artist Residency

Saturday, November 15, 2pm
Saturday, November 22, 2pm
Minneapolis Central Library

McKnight Composer Fellow and COMPAS Teaching Artist Kashimana Ahua will lead a 3-part series on music creation and guide participants in developing their own songs and ideas with voice, pen, and paper. Equipment such as song looping technology may be demonstrated and available for participants to try. Open to all skill levels.

Northeast Library Reopening Celebration

Saturday, November 22, 10am
Northeast Library

Celebrate the reopening of Northeast Library on Saturday, November 22, from 10 am to noon. The event will feature live art making with a Face-O-Mat booth presented by local artist Andrea From, as well as a variety of family-friendly activities including a story stroll, making of a community art mural, and games.

Refreshments will be served.

Author Talk: The House on Rondo

Sunday, December 7, 1pm
Sumner Library

Join local author Debra Stone in conversation with Arleta Little as they discuss "The House on Rondo," Stone's novel for middle grade readers and above. We'll hear how young Zenobia reckons with the demolition of a Black Saint Paul neighborhood to build Interstate 94 between Saint Paul and Minneapolis. As Zenobia learns what can be destroyed and what cannot, her story teaches us that joy, community, and love persist, even amid violence and loss.
